Las Vegas Singer/Impressionist Receives Flag From Soldiers in Iraq

Las Vegas, Nevada – October 26, 2008 –Tom Stevens, a Las Vegas Singer/Impressionist, was presented last week with an American flag during one of his performances at the Riviera Hotel and Casino.

Chief Warrant Officer 5 Geraldine Bowers presented Mr. Stevens with an American flag in recognition of his support for our troops. The flag was flown specifically for Mr. Stevens over the former Presidential Palace in Baghdad, Iraq, home to the MNF-Iraq and the U.S. Embassy, on our Independence Day, July 4th of 2008.

Over the last 10 years, Mr. Stevens has dedicated each of his performances to the men and women of the Armed Services by acknowledging the commitment and sacrifices they make for our Country.

The presenter, Chief Warrant Officer 5 Geraldine Bowers is assigned as the Operations Officer to the Multi-National Force- Iraq Personnel Recovery Division. This Division is given the critical responsibility of completing one of the Country's highest priorities: the return of every Soldier, Sailor, Airman and Marine with honor.

As Veteran's Day approaches, Las Vegas' Mayor Oscar Goodman made a request for hotels and performers to reach out and provide soldiers with complimentary services. In response to the Mayor's request, Mr. Stevens has begun his "Impressions Of Freedom" Campaign.

Military Personnel (Active Duty and Veterans) will gain admission to Mr. Steven's performances FREE for the months of November and December of 2008 as long as they present their Military ID or Veterans Identification Card at the box office. Mr. Stevens feels that our Military has already paid a price and hopes other performers will follow suit in supporting Mayor Goodman in honoring these brave men and women.

Mr. Stevens performs at the Le Bistro Theater at the Riviera Hotel and Casino
